

Ever since Nixon lost the election and arguably before, mass media has comprised the fourth branch of government. Any media broadcast over public airwaves (and through our very homes and bodies) must be regulated by the federal government. Our federal government must act to ensure a broad and diverse source of news by requiring that ownership of said mass media be affected by many independent sources.

Please act to defeat weakening such deregulation.

Thank You,

Ana Ortega